

Nadya Timofeyeva was born in Moscow. Graduate of the Moscow Choreography Academy. After graduating at the age of 18, she began a career as a soloist at the Kremlin Theater in Moscow.

Nadya Timofeyeva was born in Moscow. Graduate of the Moscow Choreography Academy. After graduating at the age of 18, she began a career as a soloist at the Kremlin Theater in Moscow.

1991 - Immigrated to Israel with her mother, Nina Timofeyeva - former Prima-Ballerina at the Bolshoi Theater Ballet. That same year she was an assistant to her mother and began working at the Jerusalem Academy of Music and Dance.

In 1992, Nadya won first place in the Mia Arbatova competition in Israel. Over the years, she has performed in various companies in Israel.

In 2004 she founded the Jerusalem Ballet School together with her mother Nina Timofeyeva.

In 2007, she founded the "Jerusalem Ballet" company together with Marina Neeman. From 2007 - the artistic director of two new bodies: the "Jerusalem Ballet" company and the Jerusalem Ballet School.